ABOUT SAMT

Srusti Academy of Management & Technology (Autonomous) is an institution built on the belief that education must evolve with the world it serves.

We are a space where academic structure meets real-world relevance and where students are encouraged to grow–not just academically, but personally and professionally. At Srusti, learning is purposeful, experiences are intentional, and outcomes matter. We prepare students to think critically, communicate confidently, and act responsibly–whether they choose corporate careers, entrepreneurship, higher studies, or social impact paths.
